

Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Joseph L. McQuistion has been a loyal citizen of the State of South Dakota since moving to South Dakota in 1904; and,

WHEREAS, Joseph L. McQuistion has had a long and distinguished life since his birth on November 20, 1892 in DeWitt, Iowa; and,

WHEREAS, Joseph served his country honorably in World War I in Europe, and served the citizens of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, from January 17, 1944, until retiring February 1, 1959, from the Sioux Falls Police Department and still continues to be a strong supporter for law and order; and,

WHEREAS, On November 20, 1987, there will be a celebration in Sioux Falls by law enforcement officers, family and friends to recognize Joseph L. McQuistion on his 95th birthday; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of all occasions in the lives of exemplary South Dakotans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. NICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 20, 1987, as

JOSEPH L. MCQUISTION DAY

In South Dakota

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

GEORGE S. NICKELSON, GOVERNOR

George S. Nickelson
GEORGE S. NICKELSON, SECRETARY OF STATE
